

GDPR privacy notice for pupils and families

Who processes your information?

Abram Bryn Gates Primary School is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us. This means the school determines the purpose for which and the manner any personal data relating to pupils and their families is to be processed. Mrs. G. Talbot acts as a representative for the school with regard to its data controller responsibilities. She can be contacted on 01942 866392.

In some cases your data will be outsourced to a third party processor; however, this will only be done with your consent, unless the law requires the school to share your data. Where the school outsources data to a third party processor, the same data protection standards the Abram Bryn Gates upholds are imposed on the processor.

Mrs. Green is the data protection officer. Their role is to oversee and monitor the school's data protection procedures and to ensure they are compliant with the GDPR. The data protection officer can be contacted on 01942 866392 or enquires@admin.bryngates.wigan.sch.uk

Why do we collect and use your information?

Abram Bryn Gates holds the legal right to collect and use personal data relating to pupils and their families and we may also receive information regarding them from their previous school, LA and/or DfE. We collect and use personal data in order to meet legal requirements and legitimate interests set out in the GDPR and UK law, including those in relation to the following:

- Article 6 and Article 9 of the GDPR
- Education Act 1996
- Section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013

In accordance with the above, the personal data of pupils and their families is collected and used for the following reasons:

- To support pupil learning
- To enrol pupils into the school
- To monitor and report on pupil attendance
- To monitor and report on pupil progress
- To provide appropriate pastoral care
- To assess the quality of our service
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing

- Statistical purposes

Which data is collected?

The categories of pupil information that the school collects, holds and shares include the following:

- Personal information - e.g. names, contact numbers and addresses
- Characteristics - e.g. ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility
- Attendance information - e.g. number of absences and absence reasons
- Assessment information - e.g. national curriculum and teacher assessment results
- Relevant medical information
- Information relating to SEND (Special Educational Needs)
- Behavioural information - e.g. number of temporary exclusions

Whilst the majority of the personal data you provide to the school is mandatory, some is provided on a voluntary basis. When collecting data, the school will inform you whether you are required to provide this data or if your consent is needed. Where consent is required, the school will provide you with specific and explicit information with regards to the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

How long is your data stored for?

Personal data relating to pupils at Abram Bryn Gates and their families is stored in line with the school's GDPR Data Protection Policy.

In accordance with the GDPR, the school does not store personal data indefinitely; data is only stored for as long as necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected.

Will my information be shared?

The school is required to share pupils' data with the DfE on a statutory basis, this includes the following:

- Personal data - i.e. name, address, date of birth, ethnicity etc.
- Attendance data
- Assessment data
- Special Educational Needs data
- Behavioural data
- Free school Meals eligibility

The National Pupil Database (NPD) is managed by the DfE and contains information about pupils in schools in England, is required by law to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections, such as the school census; some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The DfE may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or wellbeing of children in England by:

- Conducting research or analysis
- Producing statistics
- Providing information, advice or guidance

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of any data shared from the NPD is maintained.

Abram Bryn Gates Primary School will not share your personal information with any third parties without your consent, unless the law allows us to do so. The school routinely shares pupils' information with:

- Pupils' destinations upon leaving the school
- The Local Authority
- The National Health Service
- The Department for Education
- Arbor – Pupil personal data including attendance, assessment and medical data
- Perspective
- Insight – personal data
- Big Maths
- My Maths
- Class Dojo

- Metrofresh – school meal ordering service
- Benchmark – school's ICT maintenance contractor
- School Website
- Facebook
- Twitter
- Wigan Family Welfare Service
- Social Care
- Twinkle Toes Nursery – contact information if appropriate

The information that we share with these parties includes the following:

- Personal data to allow pupils to be enrolled to secondary school
- Attendance data
- Assessment data
- Behavioural information
- Special Educational Needs data
- Free school meals eligibility
- Medical data

What are your rights?

Parents and pupils have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data.

You have the right to:

- Be informed about how Abram Bryn Gates Primary School uses your personal data
- Request access to the personal data that Abram Bryn Gates Primary school holds
- Request that your personal data is amended if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- Request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- Request that the processing of your data is restricted
- Object to your personal data being processed

Where the processing of your data is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time.

If you have a concern about the way Abram Bryn Gates Primary School and/or the DfE is collecting or using your personal data, you can raise a concern with the Information Commissioner's Office (IOC). The IOC can be contacted on 0303 123 1113, Monday-Friday 9am-5pm.

Where can we find out more information?

If you would like to find out more information about how we and/or the DfE collect, use and store your personal data, please visit our website www.bryngates.wigan.sch.uk or download our GDPR Data Protection Policy.
